

Good morning world
Art project by Herbert Hundrich
July 19 – October 31

Opening on 19 July at 4 pm as part of the 14th Monastery Festival
 Midissage on August 3 at 4 p.m.

Rediscovering the world every day and drawing hope from it is the idea behind Herbert Hundrich's art project "Good Morning World." "This is the world I live in. This is the world I am in. Although it has often accompanied me, I often didn't see it," Hundrich summarizes his initial thoughts on the project idea. "On the morning of January 1, 2024, I stood on a large hill, looking down into a small valley, a steaming cup of coffee in my hand, light morning mist, the sun rising... Good morning, I thought, seconds later: Good morning world," he describes the beginning of his project.

Herbert Hundrich then invited artists—from Hong Kong to the western United States, from southern Africa to the far north—to share this very moment with him, sending him a piece of paper, a word, a thought, a photograph, a drawing, an image, a movement, a melody, or a film. He asked the artists to imagine themselves saying "Good Morning" to the world. This created a collective and global snapshot with photographs from almost every continent. Participants were Anca Ion, Anke Mellin, Brigitte Neufeldt, Marie-Noëlle Ginard Féron, Catarina Mantwill, Christine Lengtat, Stefan Ostermeyer, Corinne Le Lepvrier, Furaha Art School, Hartmut Jahn, Helle Rask Crawford, Ingo Lie, Janeth Anakret Mbiki, Joost Goverts, Jutta Schwöbel, Lydia Klammer, Masudi Kibwana, Michael Radmann, Michaela Berning-Tournier, Monika Schüddekopf, Nahid Rupani, Nelly Helman Kiswanta, Olga Bloch, Patricio Alvarez Aragon, Peter Groß, Rainer Fest, Renate Schürmeyer, Rikki Tollenaere, Roswitha Reimer, Salla Kumo-Winkler, Sascha Stadlmeyer, Takwe Kaenders, Thomas Fitzner, Thomas Rehehäuser, Uwe Nölke, Uwe Stelter, Wai Kit Lam, Wang Lan, Werner Mönch.
